

Dear Sir or Maddam,

I am sending you this message on behalf of the telephone privacy laws in Indiana. Since placing my name on the "no call" list, I have enjoyed a greater sense of peace and quiet after returning home from work. Knowing that when my phone rings at home, the person on the other end of the line is going to be a family member or friend, and not someone trying to sell me something, has been a source of great joy. If you ask me, quality of life in Indiana has risen since passing this law. Please do not accept a lower national standard, instead, raise the standard for other states to match that of Indiana. Hopefully you realize that by accepting a lower national standard, you will be lowering the quality of life in our wonderful country.

Sincerely,

Peter A. Strege
